

Consent to Publish

Gökova Geometry Topology Conferences

Gökova Geometry Topology Conferences (the “Publisher”) requires each author to provide a formal written Consent to Publish.

Title of Contribution (“Work”): _____

Author(s): _____

Name of Publication: _____

1. The Author(s) hereby consents that the Publisher publishes the Work in accordance with the provisions set below.
2. The Author(s) warrants that the Work has not been published before in any form except as a preprint, that the Work is not currently submitted to another publication, that all Authors are properly credited. The Author(s) also warrants that the Work does not libel anyone, infringe anyone’s copyright, or otherwise violate anyone’s statutory or common law rights.
3. The Author(s) hereby transfers to the Publisher the copyright in the Work named above whereby the Publisher shall have, subject only to item 4, the exclusive and unlimited right to publish the said Work and to translate (or authorize others to translate) it wholly or in part throughout the World during the full term of copyright including renewals and extensions and all subsidiary rights as indicated above.
4. The Work may be reproduced by any means for educational and scientific purposes by the Author(s) or by others without fee or permission, with the exception that reproduction by services that collect fees for delivery of documents may be licensed only by the Publisher. Reproduction by services that collect fees for delivery of documents shall be subject to the prior approval of the Publisher. The Author(s) may use part or all of this Work or its image in any future works of his/her (their) own. In any reproduction, the original publication by the Publisher must be credited.
5. In the event of receiving any request to reprint or translate all or part of the Work, the Publisher shall seek to inform the Author(s).
6. If the Author(s) wishes to retain copyright of the content and image of this Work, in the Author(s)’ name(s) or the name of a third party (e.g., employer), the Author(s) may strike out and initial items 3, 4, and 5 above. In this case the Author(s) nevertheless gives the Publisher unlimited rights to publish and distribute the Work in any form and to translate (or allow others to translate) the Work wholly or in part throughout the World and to accept payment for this. The copyright holder retains the right to duplicate the Work by any means and to permit others to do the same with the exception of reproduction by services that collect fees for delivery of documents. In each case of authorized duplication of the Work, the Author(s) must still ensure that the original publication by the Publisher is properly credited.
7. If the Author(s) transfers copyright to the Publisher, the Author(s) may dedicate the article to the public domain after 28 years from the date of publication. Please initial one of the following options:
 - _____ I choose to dedicate this work to the public domain 28 years from the date of publication.
 - _____ I do not choose to dedicate this work to the public domain.
